

Mission Statement

To train Specialists and Noncommissioned Officers to visualize, describe, and execute squad level operations while incorporating current lessons learned and adapting to the contemporary operating environments; develop leaders who are predictive, adaptive, and innovative; capable of leading Soldiers in any combat scenario; prepare noncommissioned officers for leadership duties, standard-based performance-oriented skills; and battle-focused training, which supports squad level operations to include instilling the self-confidence, knowledge, and sense of responsibility necessary to train and lead subordinates in our Warrior Leader Combat Tasks and Drills.